There are several programs that may help you in meeting your needs. I hope you find this information useful.

CONNECTICUT HOME CARE PROGRAM FOR ELDERS - This program helps Connecticut seniors who are physically and financially struggling to meet their basic needs. Their services range from companion and homemaker services to home delivered meals. For more information or to start the application process, please call 1-800-445-5394.

MONEY FOLLOWS THE PERSON PROGRAM - This program offers enhanced community services and support to people who have resided in nursing facilities for at least six months. The program's housing initiative has increased housing options for seniors across the state. Learn more by calling 1-800-842-1508.

MEDICARE SAVINGS PROGRAMS - There are a variety of beneficial programs that help you pay for your Medicare Part B premiums. Your income will determine the correct program for you. It does not cost anything to apply or receive benefits from this program. You may even be eligible to have your deductibles under Medicare covered as well. Learn more by calling 1-800-842-1508.

STATE SUPPLEMENTAL PROGRAM - This is for Connecticut seniors and disabled people for the purpose of supplementing their monthly income. To see if you qualify, call 860-424-5250.

THE OFFICE OF THE HEALTHCARE ADVOCATE - This office saved consumers $2.54 million in the first quarter of 2013. The independent state agency assists consumers with health plan issues like denials of coverage and unwarranted billing. OHA is a federally recognized consumer assistance program under the Affordable Care Act and will play a key role in outreach, education and advocacy for new enrollees in 2014. If you are experiencing trouble with your healthcare coverage, call 866-466-4446.
