

UPDATE FROM REPRESENTATIVE PAT DILLON

Building Community in Tough Times

As the recession has deepened, one in eight Americans, and one in four American children, receives supplemental food assistance. Food insecurity is also a source of anxiety for seniors.

New Haven is rich in community resources. If you would like to contribute by volunteering, donating, or if someone you know needs assistance for basic needs, you have many choices.

MAKING A GOOD GIFT BETTER

Community organizations providing basic food and shelter have been targeted for cuts in the Governor's budget just as the need is increasing. These groups deserve our support, and we can give twice. Until January 15, 2010, the Community Foundation of Greater New Haven matches donations to these programs providing basic needs. You can also inquire about opportunities to volunteer.
