Dear Neighbor,

The state has declared a public health emergency to combat COVID-19, a respiratory disease that has impacted communities across the state, country, and world. Public health and elected officials have begun managing containment and limiting the spread.

This mailer provides information to help keep you up-to-date as experts learn more and officials act to fight the pandemic.

I want you to know that I am here for you and together we will get through this. Please reach out to my office if you have any questions or concerns. Wishing you and your family safety and good health. You can reach me by email at: Bob.Godfrey@cga.ct.gov or by phone toll free at 1-800-842-1902 or at 860-240-8532 (office) or 203-778-5127 (home).

FOR THE LATEST ON STATE RESPONSE EFFORTS, DIAL 2-1-1 OR VISIT CT.GOV/CORONAVIRUS

What Is Coronavirus/COVID-19?

COVID-19 (Coronavirus Disease 2019) is a respiratory illness spread from person to person contact. Symptoms may include cough, fever, and difficulty breathing and may appear 2-14 days after exposure.

Health Services

Think you have COVID-19? Visit CDC.gov for a list of symptoms.

If you think you need to be tested for coronavirus, consult your doctor. At this time, you cannot receive a test without a doctor's prescription. The state is working with our hospitals to establish testing sites. To find a site, call 2-1-1.

HUSKY members can receive medical and behavioral health services from their health care providers by audio-only telephone or video conferencing.

Housing and Legal Assistance

Dial 2-1-1 and press #3 then #4 if you are in a housing emergency.

Participating financial institutions are now offering mortgage-payment forbearances of up to 90 days, allowing homeowners to reduce or delay mortgage payments.

Get legal information about court access, work, benefits, housing, and more during the COVID-19 crisis. Visit www.ctlawhelp.org/coronavirus.

Visit CDC.gov and CT.gov/coronavirus for national and statewide notices or dial 2-1-1. Visit (danbury-ct.gov/covid19/) for the latest on local issues

STAY HOME

The Governor signed an Executive Order that encourages people to stay in their homes unless running essential errands and closes all businesses not deemed essential until further notice to slow the spread of COVID-19.

STAY 6 + FEET FROM OTHERS

The Centers for Disease Control says that COVID-19 can be spread to people within at least six feet of one another and that people who have the virus without symptoms are contagious.

WEAR A MASK IN PUBLIC

If you have to leave the house, the federal government recommends that you wear a non-medical face mask to reduce the risk of getting infected or infecting others with COVID-19.

WASH HANDS AND SANITIZE SURFACES FREQUENTLY

Economic Relief

Visit the Department of Labor website at ct.dol.state.us to access an FAQ sheet on the rights of employees and employers as well as the form to file for unemployment. If you have questions on your unemployment claim you can email dol.webhelp@ct.gov.

The state and federal government offer a number of programs to support small businesses. To learn more, call the Department of Economic and Community Development hotline at 860-500-2333 or visit ct.gov/decd.

The Department of Revenue Services has extended filing and payment deadlines for personal income tax returns to July 15, 2020.

Food and Nutrition

There are several options available if you, someone you know, or a loved one is in need of food. For Meals on Wheels call 203-743-5318. Locations and hours for Soup Kitchens, Food Pantries, and "Grab and Go" lunches for students, family, and seniors can be found online at: uwwesternct.org/blog/uwwc-danbury-area-food-response-covid19 or by calling 2-1-1.

For seniors living at home, some grocery stores have begun offering hours of operation specifically for those over the age of 60. In Danbury and the Danbury area those include*:
