

REP. ANNE HUGHES: IT'S TIME TO INVEST IN SENIORS

EASTON, WESTON, AND REDDING'S VOICE AT THE STATE CAPITOL

Connecticut's aging population is growing and faces escalating challenges. As our society ages, these issues will only become more pronounced and common. That's why this legislative session, I worked hard to pass several bills that work to address these complex issues and to help make crucial improvements in senior care. Connecticut seniors deserve the best support and resources we can offer for them to comfortably age in place, and when hospital, rehab, or nursing home stays are needed, they deserve outstanding care.
