SUCCESS STORIES

Brian is employed as a fulltime employee at Electric Boat in New London, CT. Overcoming cancer as a teen, Brian displayed the courage and persistence to follow his dream to be a mechanic. He graduated from the Southwest Collegiate Institute for the Deaf.

Isaac attended both ASD and the West Hartford Public Schools. After graduation, he attended the National Technical Institute for the Deaf in Rochester, NY. He is now employed at Stanley Works in New Britain.

Dustin enrolled at ASD at age 9. He had a history of medical challenges and struggled in public school. At ASD, Dustin focused on basic reading and math skills, as well as skills which would allow him to live independently. Upon graduation, Dustin got a job with Sodexo where he has been employed for 10 years.

Leah received her educational foundation at ASD prior to moving to the Pennsylvania School for the Deaf. She now works in the White House as a Research Assistant on Michelle Obama's staff.

John Serrano is currently the Director of Academic Affairs at the Texas School for the Deaf in Austin. He earned both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees at Gallaudet University where he served as the editor of the Buff and Blue, the university newspaper. While at ASD, he was president of his class. John is a strong advocate for deaf Latino youngsters.

Megan attended the National Technical Institute for the Deaf in Rochester, NY and received her Bachelor's degree from the Rochester Institute of Technology. She is now pursuing a Master's degree in Visual Arts at RIT.
