

REP. JOSH ELLIOTT: MAKING CT MORE AFFORDABLE STARTS WITH STRUCTURAL TAX REFORM

Connecticut's tax system isn't fair for our working- and middle-class families and it's too reliant on property taxes. A more equitable system doesn't just help marginalized communities – it's fairer for all of us.

I VOTED FOR HISTORIC TAX CUTS | BUT THERE'S SO MUCH LEFT TO DO

- Largest income tax cut in state history
- Increased our Earned Income Tax Credit which benefits 2,970 Hamden residents
- Exempted more retirement income
- Zeroed out property taxes for fully disabled veterans

- Restructure how we collect revenue to base it on fairness and efficiency
- Prevent bracket creep by adjusting marginal tax brackets for inflation
- Eliminate wasteful, industry-specific tax credits
- Balance our tax burdens while investing in essential safety net programs
