

Rising home values, global inflation, and preparing for the possibility of a recession are serious issues facing CT. Thanks to balanced budgets, we have a healthy reserve fund and recently approved spending and revenue caps that will protect you for the next decade. But our job this session is clear:

MAKING CT MORE AFFORDABLE MUST BE A TOP PRIORITY.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE RON NAPOLI JR FIGHTING FOR ECONOMIC RELIEF

DURING OUR FIRST FEW WEEKS OF THE LEGISLATIVE SESSION, I VOTED FOR:

- Waterbury schools to get more money for special education
- Use surplus dollars to pay down our pension liabilities
- Strengthened fiscal controls – ensuring balanced state budgets

WE ARE NOW WORKING ON THE NEXT ROUND OF HISTORIC TAX CUTS

- Lowering income tax rates for working families
- Lower business taxes by bringing down the cost of Unemployment Insurance
- Bringing more Education/ Brownfield resources to Waterbury
